Runsheets That Work:
Design Experiences, Not Agendas

Move beyond agendas and start designing learning experiences. This practical workshop helps you create runsheets that prioritise connection, engagement, learning opportunities and meaningful outcomes.

This workshop builds on previous learnings from Jeanette's facilitation and extension training. Priority will be given to people who have recently attended a 2-day extension or facilitation workshop. Bring along an event and apply proven principles as you map the learning journey. You'll learn how to structure the flow, integrate facilitation techniques, integrate expert input effectively, and build in hands-on moments that stick. Walk away with a runsheet and a smarter approach to event design.

Tuesday 8 December
